As per the information provided by Goods and Services Tax Council Secretariat, as a trade facilitation measure, based on turnover, following enterprises are not required to obtain GST registration:

- i. Persons involved in intra-state taxable supply of goods, if aggregate turnover in a financial year does not exceed ₹ 40 Lakh.
- ii. Persons involved in intra-state or inter-state taxable supply of services, if aggregate turnover in a financial year does not exceed ₹ 20 Lakh.

To ease the compliance burden involved in filing of monthly Returns, several facilitation measures have been taken for the MSME sector. It has also been informed that Composition levy scheme in GST has been designed for small and medium taxpayers having turnover within the prescribed limit. A supplier of Goods having an aggregate turnover upto Rs. 1.5 crore and a supplier of service having a turnover upto Rs. 50 lakh may opt for the Composition Scheme. The tax has to be paid on a quarterly basis, based on a declaration and such taxpayers do not have to maintain elaborate accounts and have to file only one annual return.

Further, as per the information provided by Central Board of Direct Taxes, Department of Revenue, Ministry of Finance, the Income Tax Act, 1961 does not provide for any specific penalty only for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises.

This information was given by the Minister of State for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises, Sushri Shobha Karandlaje in a written reply in the Lok Sabha today.
